The place where I live

Hi! My name is Sandra  and I live in Hill town in the south of England. There are many shops here! There are three  supermarkets. There are two  banks and one  post office. There is one  police station. My father is a policeman and works there. There is a  big park where I love to play and meet with my friends. In our town you can find some  restaurants and a  library. There are four  schools. My mum works at the elementary school. She is a fantastic science teacher!

Next to that school, there is a  sport center. If you want to see a film, you can go to the  cinema. I like living here because it is a calm, beauty place and people are friendly.
